*Considering the farming practices in eastern Europe, where Linseed is grown next to cereals, soy and mustard, we cannot guarantee the product having no remains from possible cultivation or transportation contamination, such as cereals or soy. Minor traces of these cross-contamination are not likely to be found in the max. 0.1% impurities. We feel further testing should take place before 'free from' guarantee can be made.

Camstar Herbs Ltd request that all manufactures take all reasonable and practical precautions to prevent cross contamination of any allergens. Details of allergen management controls relating to the manufacture of this product are available upon request.
